

1 Generalized Linear Models

Generalized linear models are just as easy to fit in R as ordinary linear model.

In fact, they require only an additional parameter to specify the variance and link functions.